

Local and Personal

Dr. Russell is looking for his new auto now any day.

G. W. Jobe was in town Wednesday from Plaza Largo.

A. B. Dauber is negotiating the purchase of Solana real estate.

Hon. J. E. Wharton was here several days from Alamogordo attending to legal business.

The younger society set of the city enjoyed a social hop at the court house Thursday night.

U. S. Commissioner Chas. Brown and his partner, Mr. Marr, of Cuervo, were visitors here Monday.

Albert Wilborn, the agent for the Solana Townsite Company has spent several days in the city and is a very busy man.

Lewis Czabo, a farmer here near town, has Indian corn with three or four blades on, also broom corn up and growing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. D. Olivera were here from Bovina Monday and Tuesday attending to matters Probate and returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Alex Goldenberg, of Tucumcari, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Floersheim Tuesday and Wednesday.—Spanish American.

Gus Mathis is sparing for the honors of kaffir corn king of Quay county. He is preparing a large acreage of the crop and has already begun the seeding.

This paper is authorized to announce that there will be a box supper at the Martinez ranch on the Plaza Largo Friday night the 19th inst., and a ball for the benefit of the school house fund. Everybody is invited.

Albert Wilborn, the townsite agent for the new town of Solana was in the city a day or two. He informs us that the town is growing rapidly and that they soon intend to have a newspaper and many other improvements.

John O'Shea, the witty and popular Southwestern conductor and Chas. Jones, the Santa Rosa business man, were Tucumcari visitors Wednesday. They own considerable property here and were here in that interest.

J. B. Hardy, a farmer four miles east of town was arraigned for the non-payment of poll tax Tuesday.. Mr. Hardy is sixty-two years of age and this is his first answer to any sort of a charge in any court of his country. It was developed in his answer that he had paid his poll tax and had a receipt, but had been receipted by the collector of the wrong school district.

Mrs. E. McCargar has sold her confectionery store to Joseph Spencer, and she and the children will in a few days return to Peoria, Illinois.

O. W. Meehem of Henritta, I. T., is a homeseeker here this week and is greatly pleased with the town and country. He will locate.

S. R. May and family returned Tuesday from Capitan, Lincoln county, where they had been called on account of the illness of Mr. May's father, who died on the 2nd inst of spinal meningitis.

This undoubtedly means that the red sun-bonnet along the Rock Island system will have, to go, too. Our lady friends who have resorted to the sun bonnet to defy the balmy breezes will be required henceforth to be "a wearin' of the green.—Nara Visa Register.

E. M. Alvard, general superintendent of the Missouri and Kansas and Texas railway has issued a bulletin requesting section men not to wear red shirts while at work. The explanation is said to be that an engineer did not heed a red flag signal recently and when taken to task, he explained that he mistook the flag for the red shirt of section man.—Ex.

W. S. Hancock, of Topeka, Kansas, was here last week and looked at the most of Quay county. He bought 160 acres of patented land from Wm. R. Scott out in the Conawa Basin for a consideration of $1,600.00. He is very much pleased with the Southwest, and is coming back in a short time to make it his permanent home. He intends to plant a large orchard in connection with alfalfa.

Chas. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. White, is here from Tulare, Otero county, to visit them for a week. Charlie was a cowboy at Fort Bascom on the Canadian twenty years ago. He said to the editor: "I recognize a few of the old landmarks, most prominent among them the Tucumcari mountains, but the valley has been spoiled by civilization." Speaking of the country here, he said: "I believe this is the greatest country in the Southwest."

The pastor of the Methodist Church, South, was the recipient of a genuine pounding Saturday night. The function was the supplying of the larder with all kinds of good things to eat, and it was under the auspices of the ladies aid of that church who had the matter in hand for several days. We never heard of an editor who got off as light as this when there was pounding to be done in our twenty years of experience in the business. But, no matter, we can't all be preachers.

THE BARGAIN CORNER!

This will be a lucky week for the hosiery buyer. All of our hosiery will be marked way below the real value, and this will be a good time for you to buy the summer supply.

Ladies Lisle thread seamless hose lace pattern, 25c value, 15c
Ladies Lisle thread seamless hose lace pattern, 40c value, 24c
Ladies Hermsdoff dyed lace hose, 6 patterns, 75c values, 49c
Ladies Embroidered Lisle hose, 4 patterns, 1.50 values, 98c
Ladies pure silk hose, regular 3.50 and 3.00 values, 2.65, - 2.25
Misses "Maid of Athens" 45c hose, this week only 22c.

1200 yards embroidery
all widths, this week 11c yd.
1800 yards Swiss embroidery
all widths, this week 27 1-2c

Gross Kelly & Co.

Sole Agents for W. L. Douglas shoes

A. D. GOLDENBERG, PRES.

E. L. TAYLOR, SUPT.

TUCUMCARI

Water, Ice & Power Co.

(INCORPORATED.)

Every enterprising citizen should patronize a local industry or enterprise.

WE ARE HERE TO STAY, AND SOLICIT YOUR PATRONAGE.

— OUR RATES REASONABLE. —

Notice to Mountain Climbers.

Tucumcari Mountain is a nice place to climb. To go there you must go by the public highway or hire a balloon, for we, the undersigned, offer a reward of $15.00 for evidence that will convict any party or parties of trespassing on our property. 22tf

J. A. STREET,
R. P. DONOHOO,
S. ANDERSON,
JOHN HENRY.

The final homestead proofs of Jack Davis and Henry Eaton were both turned down at the Clayton land office this week on account of not sufficient residence. Those who are paying their homesteads semi-annual visits had better take a tumble.—Clayton Citizen.

Long Silk Gloves and Mittens,
Ladies' Shirt Waists and Stylish Dress Skirts at

4-13-11 THE RACKET STORE.
White, Blue and Gray Canvass
Slippers at 4-13-11

THE RACKET STORE.